For Immediate Release:
November 13, 2009

The Columbia County Health Department would like to remind county residents that the scheduled regular seasonal flu clinic for Wednesday November 18, 2009 located at the Canaan Town Hall has been cancelled due to unavailability of the regular seasonal flu vaccine. The Health Department would like to thank the residents for their continued cooperation. There are no additional community clinics scheduled at this time.

The Health Department will notify the public as soon as information is received regarding regular seasonal flu vaccine availability.
